

Gathering 2019

Apostle Richard Wright

We were privileged to have with us as a guest speaker Apostle Richard Wright from Eagle's Wings Ministries, Portland, Oregon. The connection with Apostle Richard goes back to October 2006 when Prophet Graham first exchanged e-mails with him following a recommendation from Apostle André Pelser. He invited Prophet Graham to be one of the Prophets at a Prophetic Gathering he was hosting at his church in December 2006. They became firm friends and the relationship has developed since then.

The theme 'Heart of the Father' was appropriate given that Apostle Richard was one of the pioneers as a father of the apostolic reformation move in the USA. He suffered much. His book 'Not many fathers' is to be recommended and brings good understanding of the need for spiritual fathers to be restored to the Church. We can all agree the fellowship, ministry and way we all felt the unity of the Spirit was a great blessing. Here we have included the testimonies from the Gathering below: -

Thank you for inviting us to this very good meeting. We were happy to meet new people specially the Apostle Richard W and the prophet Cheryl. It's wonderful to see that the spirit of God is moving in His church in the same way all over the world. We have a not to, but only a couple of weeks before the Gathering, Prophet Beverly contacted me and said that she felt Chris needed to be there and it had something to do with Apostle Richard. I asked Chris again after she had told me this, and he agreed to come. He was really blessed and encouraged by Apostle Richard's teaching and had some good conversations with him during fellowship times. We now have a dream in our hearts to go to the USA and visit Richard and Cheryl, as well as some other missionary wonderful expectation of what God is going to do through our joint ministry.

Great to sit at Apostle Richard's feet and hear the depth of God in a disciple of such long standing in the faith. His ministry has already begun outworking in my own and his teaching on the Holy Spirit has already moved my understanding and revelation of the Word deeper. I enjoyed the Q&A and felt he and I had a great synergy together. While Birmingham and Halifax are both in frequency with one another, it is always interesting to catch the individual flavour of another Harvester body, born of its different mixture of gifts.

A wonderful weekend of worship, teaching and fellowship, as always! It was great to meet and chat to Apostle Richard and Prophet Cheryl, they were a real encouragement to both of us. Chris had not been sure about coming on the weekend and had decided friends of ours in Illinois, so let's see what God will do in the next few years!

We were also really blessed by the ministry time when the Harvester Birmingham body prophesied and prayed over people. Katie came to us and asked what we wanted prayer for, and we told her that our son Joel needed prayer. She prayed for wisdom for us and prophesied some accurate words about Joel's situation, which we had not told her anything about. We felt comforted and encouraged by this and came away with renewed hope that Joel will be healed and will return to God.

It was special to have Apostle Richard and Prophetess Cheryl with us after meeting and spending time with them last year when we visited Eagles Wings Ministries in Portland USA. The gathering was a time of true fellowship. I was really aware of God's peace and joy that was with His people. I drew many things from what was said at the gathering especially from the teaching from Apostle Richard on what Jesus said about Gods kingdom. What he taught challenged my mindset to not just call people to receive Jesus but Afterwards, Katie told us that God had spoken the word 'Joel' to her as soon as she looked at us, so she was not surprised when we said he needed prayer.

to call them to become followers of Jesus. It was also useful to have feedback collated by Teacher Ben on how things had gone practically and what we need to possibly consider to improve next time.

The most important thing I got from The Gathering was a revisiting and reminder of ways to be closer and more intimate with God. To give my time with Him, to be more than concentrating on just asking Him for things but to have more of an intimate relationship of love towards Him.

To have what Brother Lawrence called 'to practice the presence of God'.

To say 'Good morning' to the Holy Spirit and to be willing to give up my plans daily or, as Apostle Richard said, write my plans in pencil and be willing to drop everything I have planned.

I feel it's taken the pressure off me. Before I felt I had to do so many things and always felt I hadn't done enough, but now (thanks to all the teaching I have received from Harvester) I just think that if God wants me to do something, He'll enable me to do it.

We are planning to have Teacher Chantal Pelser with us for the next Gathering God willing. We trust God will make it possible or give us wisdom if we need to postpone.
